PROCEDURE FOR SELECTION

24. FEATURE FILMS

24.1 There shall be a two-tier system i.e. Regional Jury and Central Jury for making selection for the various categories of awards as specified in Schedule-I of the Regulations. The Central jury and five (5) Regional Juries will be duly constituted by the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, comprising persons distinguished in the field of cinema, other allied arts and humanities.

(a) Regional Juries

(i) There shall be five regional juries as follows

North Panel

One Panel for films in Hindi, Punjabi, Dogri, Bhojpuri, Rajasthani, Urdu, English and Central Indian Languages.

West Panel

One Panel for films in Marathi, Gujarati and Konkani

South I Panel

One Panel for films in Tamil and Malayalam.

South II Panel

One Panel for films in Kannada, Telugu

East Panel

One Panel for films in Bengali, Assamese, Oriya, Manipuri and North-eastern dialects.

(ii) Each Regional Jury would comprise a Chairperson and one member (both of whom would be selected from outside the region) and three other members from within the region.

(iii) Each Regional Jury shall recommend upto 10 feature films or up to 30% of the entries received for that region, whichever is less.

(iv) Regional Juries shall have the power to recommend the Awards for which a particular film should be considered.

(v) It is mandatory for the jury to view each film in its entirety before arriving at a decision.

(vi) Regional Juries would preview films in Delhi and recommend films for the next level of the selection i.e. Central Jury for the Feature Films.

(b) Central Jury

(i) The Central Jury shall comprise a Chairperson and Ten (10) members. No Chairperson/Members of Regional Panels would be in the Central Jury.

(ii) The Central Jury would meet in Delhi.

(iii) The Central Jury would be the apex decision-making body for the various categories of awards, as specified under Schedule-I of the Regulations, based on the recommendations of Regional Juries.

(iv) However, the Central Jury shall also have the right to recall a film from among films not recommended by a Regional Jury, provided at least five (5) members of Central Jury (including the Chairperson of Central Jury) agree to such a recall in writing.

24.2 The Regional and Central Juries will determine their own procedure for selection of awards.

24.3 The Chairpersons of the Juries may seek advice of experts in specialized areas, whenever necessary.

24.4 With regard to the Best Feature Film category for each of the languages specified in Schedule VIII of the Constitution and Best Feature Film category in languages not listed in the Schedule VIII, only the most deserving films may be recommended by the jury for the awards that are of high aesthetic value & exhibit artistic excellence. If there is no award-worthy film, the award should not be given.

24.5 Only one Award may be given in each category. Shared Awards may be given only under exceptional circumstances to maintain the prestige of the awards.

24.6 The categories of Best Feature Film in each of the languages in Schedule VIII and other than those specified in Schedule VIII of the Constitution need to be distinguished from the National and the overall Best Feature Film Award. Therefore, the awards in this category may be renamed as Best (language) Feature Film.

25. Non-Feature Films

25.1 The Jury for Non-Feature Films shall comprise a Chairperson and not more than Six (6) members distinguished in the field of cinema, other allied arts and humanities. The Chairperson of the Non- Feature Film Jury may constitute a maximum of two panels from amongst the members of the Jury.

25.2 Each panel shall recommend up to 30% of the entries received for that region, whichever is less, to be viewed for combined viewing by the full jury. The non-feature film jury shall have the right to recall not more than such percentage of total number of entries received as has been decided by the jury before the screening of films for the panels starts.

25.3 The Non-Feature Jury will determine their work procedure. The Chairperson of the Jury may seek advice of experts in specialized areas whenever necessary.

26. BEST WRITING ON CINEMA

26.1 The awards will be decided by a Jury for Best writing on Cinema duly constituted by the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting. The Jury will consist of Three (3) members, including the Chairperson, distinguished in the field of literature or journalism or cinema and should have published at least one book in his/her name or written critical analysis in regular journals and newspapers registered with registrars of newspapers India (RNI) and Digital Media conforming 'IT Rules, 2021', i.e., Information Technology (Intermediary
